Description

The Plough and Fleece is located in the hamlet of Great Green which forms part of the village of Cockfield which is approximately 8 miles south of Bury St Edmunds in Suffolk. The property overlooks the village green and playing fields.

The property comprises a two storey public house with bar, dining, commercial kitchen facilities and storage areas. The current layout of the ground floor bar and dining area includes a seated dining for 20 covers with the addition of drinking and games areas. The dining covers could be increased up to approximately 50 covers if the accommodation was rearranged. The public cloakrooms are located off the bar area. The first floor living accommodation includes 2 bedrooms, sitting room and bathroom.

Externally there is a tarmac parking outside beer garden area and a lawned adjacent to an attractive pond. An enclosed lawned area will need to be transformed to a parking area in accordance with planning for the adjoining land. There is small yard/courtyard to the rear adjacent to some former outbuildings.
